4. Conference between General Vandenberg, Mr. Pforzheimer and Senator Gurney regarding testimony of the Director on the National Security Act of 1947. Senator Gurney requested that the Director place as much material on the record as possible, testifying in this manner for 30 minutes. He agreed to shut off any embarrassing questions from the floor and to inform the Committee that there could be an executive session with the Director if further questioning was desired. Possibility of appointing a subcommittee was considered, in view of the Chairman's statement that at least two of the Committee members were leaks to Drew Pearson. The Chairman assured the Director of all possible support in this connection. The Director and Chief, Legislative Liaison Division attended the Committee session for the testimony of Fleet Admiral Nimitz. After the session, the Director spoke with Senator Bridges, who had made some adverse comments in the hearing of 25 March regarding CIG. Senator Bridges indicated a desire to discuss the matter with the Director. An attempt will be made to secure an appointment Friday morning.
